Discover a stunning ranch-style residence in the desirable Sanctuary Cove at Cane Bay. This like-new home combines modern amenities with a welcoming atmosphere, perfect for those seeking a comfortable and stylish living space just a short drive from the vibrant cities of Charleston and Summerville. Step through the extra-wide entryway into an open and airy layout. The expansive family room seamlessly connects to the dining area and contemporary kitchen, creating an ideal setting for entertaining. The living room ceiling is prewired for fans, lights, and a WiFi extender, ensuring both comfort and connectivity. The kitchen is a chef's dream, featuring sleek granite countertops and connections for both electric and gas ranges. The large island, equipped with three spacious drawers, provides ample storage and a perfect spot for meal prep. Additional storage solutions, including a pantry and two closets in the living room, ensure a clutter-free environment. Convenience is key with an entry closet located off the garage entrance and a generously sized laundry room. The owner's suite is a true retreat, complete with a spacious walk-in closet and a bathroom that's plumbed for double sinks. Two additional bedrooms with large walk-in closets offer comfort and privacy. Living in Sanctuary Cove at Cane Bay means enjoying a host of community perks, including paved nature trails, a community pool, playground, and on-site YMCA.
